KEEP ACCESS AND HOMEROOM

I believe that many of the students at this school don't give the teachers the respect that they deserve. Many of the students waste their time in class then get upset and angry when they receive a zero for an assignment that they didn't do. Too many of the students think they don't have to do work to get a good grade when in actual fact, everyone hasn't to work and earn the grades they are given. All teachers at this school grade fairly, the students just don't want to accept that they haven't done the required assignment.

In order for SRVHS to return to the academic excellence we were once at, we need to go back to the regular schedule and get rid of block. Block schedule causes a lot more homework, less material covered, and less time between tests. Also it is very rare for access to be productive. Kids in my access class only watch fortnite and other non school related activities. Home room is even worse. Many of my rigorous teachers complain about the schedule and loss of time because there is
