Coach Robert Vincent:

Robert “Bob” Vincent is the only one of our first seven inductees who actually never attended San Ramon Val

Perhaps it is a testament to his superior abilities as a coach, a mentor, a teacher, and a most respected and v talents.

Mr. Vincent began his stay at SRVHS as part of the San Ramon coaching staff in the 1949-50 school year.

Coach Vincent seemed to be everywhere as he coached Varsity and Junior Varsity Track & Field, Varsity and Basketball, just to name a few. John Raynor, current SRVHS Athletic Director, said it all in filing out Coach Vir “Bob Vincent was the Coach of Everything at San Ramon for 40 years!!! [He was] a most positive force in ath plus years. Dedicated committed, and an exceptional role model for many athletes.”

The 1965-66 SRVHS yearbook was dedicated to Vincent, “...for his endless years of coaching many San Ram with many side contributions to both the school and the community.” That year marked his 15th year at the hig 78), Coach Vincent was selected by the county as “Teacher of the Year”

Vincent continued to be a fixture at San Ramon until retiring from the high school in the late 80’s/early 90’s. R dedication with the San Ramon Valley High School HS tennis courts being name in his honor. Vincent is also

It is fitting that Robert “Bob” Vincent still resides in Danville since in so many ways he has been a vital and pe decades.
