

Hans de Lannoy

Coach de Lannoy began his coaching career at his alma mater Cubberley High School located in Palo Alto in the fall of 1972. In the ensuing winter, he coached the girls' varsity, girl's junior varsity and boys' junior varsity simultaneously. It was the beginning of a career that has spanned five decades.

He has 40 years of coaching experience including: junior varsity boy's coach at Cubberely high school from 1972-76; varsity boy's coach at: Cubberley High School from 1977-79, Gunn High School from 1980-81, San Ramon Valley High School from 1982-87 and California High School from 1991-98; as well as the varsity girls' coach at Cubberley High School in 1972 and at San Ramon Valley High School since 2001.

In 1986 and 1987 he directed the San Ramon High School boys-to-back EBAL championships, including a division one final four finish in 1987. In 2006, he led the San Ramon Valley High School girls' basketball team to its first ever NCS championship. His year was capped by being named Cal High sports.com girls division 1 state coach of the year.

In 1983 84 Coach de Lannoy led his Wolves to their first ever play-off appearance and was named the Contra Costa Times Coach of the Year!

Coach de Lannoy has coached some of the most successful teams in Cubberley, Gunn, San Ramon and California High School Boys Basketball history!

He has coached the only NCS Girls Basketball championship team in San Ramon Valley history! Coach de Lannoy has been serving the youth of our community for 33 years as a member of San Ramon Valley's High School's Faculty.

Coach deLannoy has been a commencement speaker on ten occasions and has been a keynote speaker at over fifty rally speeches. He has been very active in raising funds and has directed over 35 fund raisers. He been honored as Mr. San Ramon in 2002 and was a two-time Mason McDuffie outstanding teacher award winner. He is a three-time honoree of the parent teacher student association.

Hans has always instilled a positive attitude towards all students/athletes he has encounter and has always strived for each to achieve their best while enjoying what they do. His has left an impression on thousands, who even today, may see Hans after decades and are excited to see him and pick up conversations as if no time had passed.

When former students/athletes think of their years at San Ramon High they think of Hans.