

John Raynor

2007 SRVHS ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

Coach John Raynor:

John Raynor has had a long and illustrious career in collegiate and high school sports and is being honored for his contributions to the athletic program, a position he has held since this author's sophomore year 1987.

Mr. Raynor's story starts with his graduation from University of San Francisco in 1976. (Cum Laude) and continued at Chapman in 1991.

In the fifteen years between his degrees, John acquired a laundry list of achievements in coaching at various

He started as Asst. Men's Basketball Coach at Menlo College and continued as Asst. Men's Basketball Coach at Archbishop Mitty Asst. Men's Basketball Coach at San Jose State, Varsity Men's Basketball Coach at Lick Wilmerding HS, and finally in 1987 came to SRVHS as the Varsity Men's Basketball Coach.

Beginning in 1989, John became the Director of Athletics at San Ramon, and continues in that capacity to this day. He has helped create this very Hall of Fame and has served on the nominating committee since its inception.

Since his start at SRVHS John has been named Honorary NCS Coach of the Year, The Pursuing Victory with 1990, 1991 and 2005. Mr. Raynor is an inductee in the Tri-Valley Sports Hall of Fame and was named Teacher of the Year.

John has amassed 5 NCS Championships, 8 League Championships, 2 Northern California Championships, and 1 National Championship game.

John Raynor is an institution within this institution and we are eternally grateful for his contributions, dedication, and leadership.