

Karen Peterson Huether

2013 SRVHS ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

Karen Peterson Huether - Class of 1985 - Soccer & Track

Teacher, coach, mentor and mom, those are some of the traits that describe Karen. You can find her today, still a soccer coach. Karen's motto is, "always doing the right thing"!

At SRV, Karen played 4 years of soccer, 4 years of track and also managed to play one year of tennis. Talk about a multi-sport athlete!

In Soccer she was a four year varsity player. In her senior year, Captain Karen, was a key contributor to the team's offense, leading the EBAL in scoring as a sophomore and as a senior! She was recognized as the National Athlete of the Year for all winter sports by the Tri-Valley Herald in 1985.

After SRV, Karen went on to play four years of soccer for UC Berkeley. She was the Captain her senior year, & Junior year and was a three time All-Western Region player. In her senior year at Cal, she became the Varsity Coach. After coaching for a year, she went on to become an assistant coach at Cal and then at USF. She was both a coach and a player!

After playing at Cal, Karen played semi pro until she was thirty-five years old. In 1988, she was on the National team (sister team to the Earthquakes at the time) with teammates that included Joy Fawcett, Brandi Chastain and Andrea Kang.

She has been a coach now for twenty-five years, including coaching her kids over the course of the last ten years and including being a trainer.
